Chapter 1 by Carlson Lim- I am back from a very long break

The thunder shook the ground before me. I wasn't scared that it would hit me, I was immortal. My name is Ares god of war. Zeus had come to fight me as I had challenged him to a fight.

I knew that this fight would go on for eons so I got ready for a match which could end in death.

Chapter 2 by Glowy-Druglord

"Ares, this is foolish," Athena hissed from the clouds. She was standing beside the rest of the Gods, Helios' horses whinnying. "Zeus will show you no mercy, and neither will we."

I grinned with pleasure. "Good. I do hate a rather boring battle. Besides, Athena. I've come with some friends." I gestured broadly to the Titans that accompanied me. My personal friend, Noro the Titan of Nightmares, unleashed a deafening roar. His daughter stood by me, her black cloak billowing behind her and her bow clutched in her hand. Her red eyes slid over to me, narrowing slightly.

"Ares," she said, her voice mature. "What is the logic to attacking Zeus? He is reckless, but he's a skilled fighter. I see no sense to attacking him." I took off my spartan like helmet down to peer at her slender body.

"Zeus and I have never got along," I explained. "I challenged him to a fight, but I will not lose."

She rolled her eyes, making a skeptical noise. "You say that now. I won't be able to help you if Zeus is handing you your ass."

I growled at that statement. "I can handle myself, Ori. Hold your tongue."

She looked away from me, an arrow forming in her hand. "I just hope you don't get us all killed for your selfish desires."

I looked up at Noro, who had been glaring at me. "Careful, Ares. Remember, I will kill you myself if you harm my daughter." His two sets of blood red eyes narrowed, but then turned to glare at the gods.

I was ready for this fight.

Zeus was going to see a completely different battle than the last time we had fought.

Oria's hound snarled viciously as drool dripped from its fangs. She leaned down and whispered something into its ear. The beast grew five times its size, jagged bat wings jutting out of its back. Long fangs extended out of long broad jaws, a deafening roar shaking the earth.

A dragon.

How perfect.

Chapter 3 by Carlson Lim- I am back from a very long break

The dragon itself was huge.

Larger then any beast known to man, even to gods the creature was gigantic. Talons blazing with fire and smoky billowing out of its nostrils.

Kronos stood next to me glaring at Zeus. I had freed him out of Tartarus and he was going to help me destroy Zeus. But I would allow him to rule the world with me.

Zeus held up his master bolt and struck, everything happened at once. I struck Athena hard on her head whilst Noro started to make the god's demigods to sleep and making them have horrific nightmares. Whilst Perses the titan of destruction was creating chaos wherever he went.

Chapter 4 by Carlson Lim- I am back from a very long break

The fight was a blurry. Golden ichor oozed out of my wounds. Zeus was shocking all of my titans whilst I was just trying to stay alive. Kronos was beside me panting and cursing at the gods. I stared at Zeus's eyes and saw hatred in them. I saw Apollo shoot dozens of silver arrows at me then all was dark...
